

Privacy Policy

Certain information you may provide to us is confidential in nature, and we have adopted a formal privacy policy to explain the limited instances when, and with whom, information may be shared. Information you provide us, that is not generally available to the public, will be kept confidential and will not be shared with other persons or organizations without your consent.

An exception to this is the sharing of information with an insurance company for the purpose of placing, servicing or updating your insurance policy(ies). We make no representation to you regarding the privacy policy of the insurance company, which may differ from ours.

The insurance companies we represent are required, under the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, to adopt their own, formal privacy policy and to disclose that policy to you.

You may browse our web site anonymously and view information about insurance issues and products. Information about anonymous browsing does not identify you personally and may be used for analytical purposes to help improve our web site and services.

Information that you save or submit through one of our online forms or Wizards is protected using Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) technology. This prevents unauthorized parties from accessing your private information during a secure web session.
